Town Torons -" Benuly, when unadorned, " is adorned the most," the poetic proverb tells us. Despite the saying, who looks upon a lovely woman, handsomely attired, without a consciousness of the effect produced by the ar rangement, the color, the quality, the very texture, of her costume; and exactly so is it with a gentlemen: graceful, well-tormed, and comely, he may be, but after all "the tailor makes the man," and just as the "artist's" taste arrays him, he becomes vulgar or attractive. Nobody knows this fact better than J. M. ARMSTRUNG, whose association with the PlotLing trade in this city for so many year has made him an oracle on such subjects enjoys a reputation second to none for the style and make of his garments, and the extent of his assortment for Men's and Youths' wear. His establishment is on the corner of Fourth and Main streets, of posite the National Hotel.

The Fall trade is fast approaching, and we take great pleasure in anumuciug ourselves in readness to supply the demands of our cus-tomers, and all others that tavor us with a call.
